

DOGS QUEENSLAND

PO Box 1136, Mt Ommaney, Qld 4074. Email: info@dogsqueensland.org.au
www.dogsqueensland.org.au

APPLICATION FOR AGILITY JUDGE

Name of Applicant: .....

Address: .....

Phone: .....

Date of birth: ..... Membership number: .....

Name of Applicant's ANKC Agility Club: .....

Present Judging status: .....

What are you applying for?

Judges training program ; Jumping Judge's licence ;

Agility Judge's licence ; Games Judge's licence .

Describe your experience training and handling agility dog/s and provide examples of the levels you have reached in ANKC or equivalent competitions: .....

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

Describe how you demonstrate capacity to uphold and abide by values outlined in the Judge's Code of Conduct: .....

.....
.....
.....
.....
.....

To be eligible to enter the Agility Judges Training Program the applicant must:

- Be a current member of Dogs Queensland and a current member of an ANKC affiliate club that conducts agility trials.
- Have demonstrated capacity (as assessed by the Agility Judges Training Panel (AJTP) and the Dogs Queensland Dog Sports Committee) to uphold and abide by the values outlined in the section for Judge's Code of Practice in this Scheme, and the Code of Conduct (Appendix 4, Rules 2017).
- Be over eighteen (18) years of age.
- To the satisfaction of the AJTP, applicants must have trained and handled a dog to an Excellent Agility title and have competed in Masters level for agility, or in an agility level in Agility Dog Association of Australia trials deemed equivalent by the AJTP.
- If already licensed to judge overseas, be eligible under the ANKC Agility Overseas Judges rules (see ANKC Procedures).